INTRODUCTION AND WELCOME

Dear honored guests, athletes and friends of karate,

---

Karate zveza Slovenije ima letos ponovno Once again the Karate Federation has been privileged to organize the Slovenia OPEN, which will be held on March 9th 2019 in Laško. We are sincerely honored to be part of the competition tradition in name of which, we will strive to uphold the same level of organisation as in past competitions KARATE1 WORLD CUP. The date of the competition is ideal for the preparation and observation of form of competitors preparing to participate at the forthcoming European Senior Championships.

I hope that these are good enough reasons for you to participate at our tournament.

At this point I would like to welcome you all and to thank you for your participation.

At this opportunity, we would like to wish all the best and good luck to all competitors.

We are certain that the high motivation, excellent standard of athletes and high number of entries will help promote and further develop the sport that we all care about. We are looking forward to meeting you all in Slovenia.

Borut Stojin
President of Slovenia Karate Federation

SLOVENIA

Slovenia is pretty small really - it's only about half the size of Switzerland.

Location: Slovenia is in central Europe, bordering Austria in the north, Hungary in the north-east, Croatia in the south and south-east, and Italy and the Adriatic Sea in the west.

Capital: Ljubljana

Population: 2,000,000

Total Area: 20,273 sq km

People per sq km: 95

Language: Slovenian, but most speak English, German or Italian.

Currency: Euro (€)

It is tucked away within a mountainous region in central Europe, which makes its countryside good for all kinds of outdoor sports, including skiing and hiking, as well as being a good place to visit in the summer. It has relatively cold winters, but warm summers too. There are only around 2 million people living in Slovenia. And only 97 people live per sq km, which is much less than most of the other European countries
